JUDGE WOOD APPOINTS KATHY PAGE TO THE ADR BOARD

Judge Bo Wood, Chief Judge of the Lookout Mountain Judicial Circuit, recently appointed Ms. Kathy Page, Superior Court Clerk of Dade County, to the Seventh District's ADR Board. The Seventh District's ADR program handles all contested civil cases in 11 of the 14 counties in the Seventh Judicial Administrative District. In 2011 over 4,500 cases were referred to the mediation program and 81% of those cases settled through the mediation process. In these economic times, mediation has proven to be cost effective and time efficient for all who have cases pending in the backlogged court system.

The Seventh District ADR Board is made up of appointed representatives throughout the district. Members are responsible for overseeing the program and its finances.
